INTRODUCTION

The 2006 State Primary and General Elections book provides official tallies for all 2006 federal and state election contests in Vermont. It is our hope that this book will help candidates, scholars, politicians and others interested in the conduct of elections in Vermont to understand the ever-changing nature of the Vermont political environment.

This publication contains the final statistics of the 2006 elections, which come from the official returns of votes submitted to the Secretary of State by town clerks, and by various canvassing committees. The election results in this book are also available electronically at <http://www.sec.state.vt.us>. We can also send a copy of the database as an email attachment that will allow you to manipulate the data to suit your own research needs if you send an email request to mhodge@sec.state.vt.us.

There were four major parties in the 2006 elections: Democratic, Liberty Union, Progressive and Republican. The minor parties that organized for the 2006 elections were: Constitution, Libertarian, and Vermont Green Party.

Those monitoring voter registration statistics may notice that our Voter Statistics section shows over 433,572 registered voters for the 2006 General Election. 263,025 people voted which represented 60.7% of those registered. Of those who voted, 53,092 or 20.2%, voted by absentee ballot.

Please feel free to contact me if you have ideas about how we could make this publication more useful.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Deborah M. Hodge". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Deborah" and last name "Hodge" being the most legible parts.
